SKIPTON PUPPET FESTIVAL

4th - 6th October 2019

www.skiptonpuppetfestival.co.uk

Welcome

From the traditional to the innovative, the sublime to the ridiculous, we present a weekend full of puppetry to inspire, delight, and give you a good giggle.

We're here to celebrate the best of puppetry, the marvelous and the mystical, the ordinary and the overlooked. Hidden between chivalrous knights and fire breathing dragons, discover the secret dreams held by a simple bag of rubbish or a rebellious lump of raw dough.

Get hands-on and interactive with mini beasts at the drop-in puppet-making workshops, then join us at the marvellous Puppet Parade, where we'll be magnifying and celebrating the often forgotten world of insects.

To help life on our planet, we are trying to reduce our plastic impact. Please help us by supporting our recycling activities - lets have a brilliant weekend!

Thanks, as ever, to our fantastic sponsors and supporters.

ZERO EN CONDUCTA
Spain

Eh Man He

"Eh man hé" ... The mechanics of the soul.

This is the story of a man and his five spirits - physical actors and owners who share the life in the body.

In this succession of metaphors that reflect on what makes us alive, our protagonist is Nolan, who, ignoring that he is a doll, in this moment asks "What is it that moves me?"

As the puppet acquires awareness of its condition it begins to rebel, seeking answers and finding only more questions. No one said it would be easy. There are dreams, hopes and yes, also our doubts and fears. Then, through imagination and the spirited steps of the soul, we can move.

This is a generous work of creativity from a multi award winning company. A masterful blend of dance, mime, and puppetry, crafted with precision. The festival is very excited to bring back this favourite from 2017.

Don't miss it!

This performance is in Giggleswick near Settle, which is 15 miles from Skipton. You can book tickets to include a coach transfer up to 1 week before the festival.
